Schooner Mayflower With Deckload of Guests Makes Thirty-five Mile Trial Trip in Heavy Sea-Crowd Greets Racing Vessel.

Boston, April 24.—The schooner Mayflower, handicapped by the weight of rainsoaked rigging and sails, by the heavy seas outside and by a deck load of passengers, made a thirty-five mile trial trip out of this port to-day. When she returned to her berth veteran fishermen, who sailed aboard her as guests, said that the schooner, which will meet the Canadian challenger, Blue Nose, in Fisherman's races off Halifax next fall, met their full approval.

A large crowd gathered this forenoon to greet the Mayflower as she slipped away from her moorings in tow of a tug. On her decks were Capt. J. Henry Larkin, her commander, and seventy-five guests, many of whom were skippers of on the banks.

"The professor's article shows him to be absolutely unacquainted with the Book of Mormon. It is plain that he never read it through. He calls it the effusions of an epileptic's brain, not realizing that much of it is transcript from the Hebrew Scriptures. His attack is not a serious effort at criticism. It is simply unwarranted ridicule of the language used by Joseph Smith. The prophet of our church was not a scholar. He worked out the tables from which the Book of Mormon was written by means of a key which had been made known to him. Prof. Riley pays no attention to the ideas contained in the book, he is concerned only with ridiculing its form."

The office is on the fifth floor and any person seeking entrance must open several doors. Mr. Guinzburg believes the men entered the building in the late afternoon, hid on the roof until the last employee in his establishment left for home at 8 P. M. Thursday, and then entered by using pass keys.

The porter who came Friday morning found the office littered with envelopes and papers, which had been discarded because they were found to be of no value, and the two big safes wrecked. Although there were four other safes on the fifth floor they were untouched. These safes contained only records and books and Mr. Quinzberg believes the burglary was done by persons acquainted with the methods of the firm.

PRAISED AND SCORNED Act of I. W. W. Leader Discussed at Church Forum.

Whether the departure of William D. (Big Bill) Haywood for Russia will hinder the granting of amnesty to those serving prison sentences for political offences was a point of difference last night at the Porum of the Community Church. The meeting was held at the Ethical Culture Meeting House, Sixty-fourth street and Central Park West.

Mrs. Harriot Stanton Blatch, chairman of the political amnesty committee, said that Haywood told her some time ago he expected a decision in his case in August, his evident intention at that time being to attend the meeting of the Third Internationale and return in time for the disposition of his case. She said, however, that she hoped Haywood stays in Russia, "to do all he can to help us in America forward to botter days." Dr. Holmes, who presided at the forum, but took little part in the discussion, disagreed with her emphatically, saying that Haywood's actions, in his opinion, simply postponed the freeing of Debs and others.

A Bad Day for the "Distant Cousin"

NE of our depositors, Mr. R., is a downtown business man of substantial means. He frequently consults with us about his financial affairs.

In the course of a recent conversation he told us with much enthusiasm "I've just made my will."

"Up to a month ago" he said, "I figured it out like this: My family consists of my wife and an unmarried sister. I own no real estate. At my death the law will give my wife one-half of my estate and $2,000 and to my sister the remainder. In case of my sister's death I wanted all of my property to go to my wife.

"One day my lawyer touched on the subject, and I explained my position. He pointed out that my sister's share of my estate might be disposed of by her will, but if she left no will it would go to a distant cousin. This was wholly against my wishes.

"I caught the point and had my will made at once, providing that my sister's share should be held in trust and when she died, it would go to my wife."

BY all means have an experienced lawyer draw your will. It is a legal matter.

On the other hand the settlement of your estate is largely a business matter. It calls for broad business judgment and experience.

If you are debating in your mind whom to name as Executor of your estate, we would like the privilege of explaining the Columbia Trust Company's system of settling estates. We believe it will pay you to look into it.
